170 mq | : 1 | : 3 | : 7

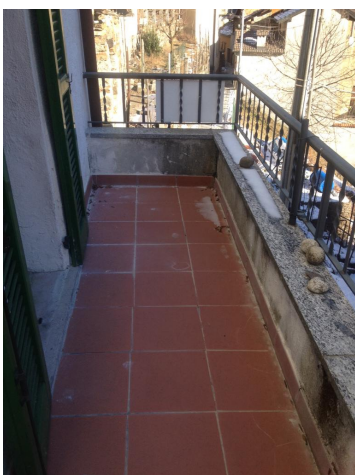

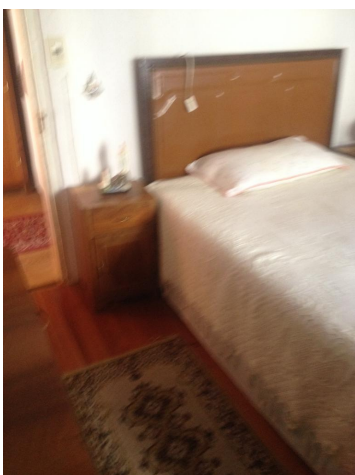

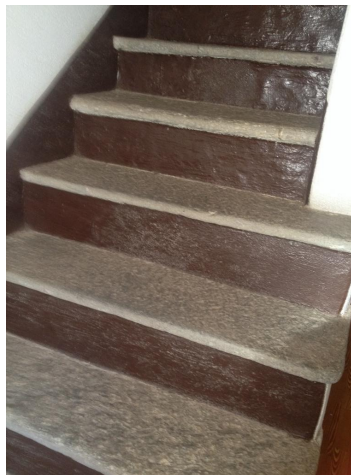

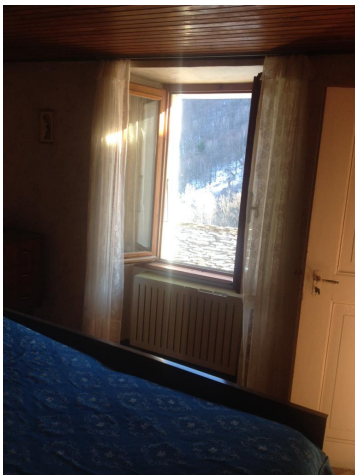

Gurro - Cannobina Valley

This typical house of the Cannobina Valley, is located in the historical heart of Gurro, the most populated village in the valley. The property from ground to sky, is spread over 4 floors, all with balcony. On the ground floor there is the entrance, with the original old washhouse and the cellars. A stone staircase leads to the first floor where there is the living room with balcony, kitchen, dining area and a storage room outside. On the second floor there are two bedrooms, a bathroom and a balcony. On the third floor there are two more bedrooms with a long balcony. The property is partially renovated, the roof is new and has independent heating with natural gas. The property ends with a small rustic, where you can get a parking space, and a small garden.

Gurro is a small village located in the upper Cannobina Valley, has 122 inhabitants. Easily reachable from Cannobio (16 km), if you come from Lake Maggiore, or from Malesco (18 km), if you come from the nearby Valle Vigezzo, this small village has a very ancient history. It is said that its origin dates back to 1525, the year in which some Scottish mercenary soldiers camped in the village without leaving.

Gurro still preserves an ancient old town centre with stone houses with large wooden loggias, narrow one to the other, and small streets that cross the entire town centre. In the centre of the old village there is the Ethnographic Museum of the Cannobina Valley, the "Circolo degli Scozzesi", two bars, restaurants and shops.
